

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

The name of this week's parsha sums up a major goal of our chinuch.

לך לך - Go, for yourself.

Hashem told Avraham Avinu to go out of his comfort zone.

Hashem then immediately told him how to view this - as a gain for yourself.

Life is about growing through challenges.

Only after going out of our comfort zone will we gain and grow.

Educating our children about the purpose and sweetness of overcoming challenges is what prepares them for a productive and fulfilling life.

This truth is the bedrock of 'עבודת ה' and is true in all aspects of success in עולם הזה as well.

Great Work!

Me

These are some things about me:
 I like baseball because I like hitting balls.
 I don't live in Passaic. I have blue eyes.
 I have blonde hair, and I don't have glasses. I hope you enjoyed the 5 things about me.
 These are 5 fun facts about my family:
 I have 3 brothers in high school.
 My mother works in the school.
 One of my brothers is in the cheder.
 I have a sister in the cheder. I have 2 uncles and 3 aunts. I have a uncle that lives in Washington. Now you know some fun facts about my family.

These are hobbies that I like almost all the time. I like all sports including tennis. I like to read. My favorite book is Black Discovery. I love to learn my favorite subject is math. I like coloring. I don't usually play fuse ball. Now you know 5 amazing things about my hobbies.

These are 5 things you may hear about me: I was in the Cheder when I was in kindergarten. I lived in Livingston my whole life. My parents live in Chicago. My uncle lives in Virginia. My aunt lives in NYC. Now you know about me.

Points from the Principal

Challenges started this week!

Acknowledgement for doing well at what is expected feels good, and receiving a reward for going above and beyond feels even better! Challenges are fun, while the benefits of problem solving outside of the regular school routine can develop and improve both skills and esteem.

This week's challenge was a word finding one... Let's see what comes next!

Have a wonderful Shabbos,

- Mrs. Gilden
