

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

"This is a very good group of students." "Your students are so nice and well behaved."

These and similar lines were repeatedly shared by the snowtubing staff during our 5th-8th snowtubing trip.

A visiting evaluator from the local school district had to observe a few children in their classrooms this week. Before she left, she made sure to tell me what a positive experience her hours at the Cheder had been, that this was her first exposure to a Jewish school and that she was so impressed.

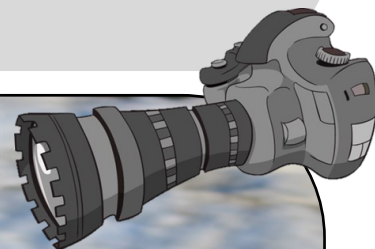

These interactions could and should make us very proud of our positive choices and the שמים שם קידוש generated in the eyes of the other nations.

Yet even more important was a comment from a Cheder mother who was so impressed with the way our 4th grade conducted themselves in Brook Haven mall this week, celebrating their siyum on ראש השנה מסכת with their Rebbe.

This type of שמים שם קידוש is even more important as it highlights our obligation to be שמים שם מקדש regardless of where we are and whom we are with... Even amongst ourselves and even alone!

Great job Clifton Cheder!

Points from the Principal

Our Middos Matter books demonstrate growth in so many ways B"H! I see how we are growing in our Middos. I also see how we are growing as writers. We are growing in our ability to express our thoughts with words, and our thoughts are becoming more sophisticated along the way.

There is so much nachas to notice and celebrate B"H! Enjoy next week's Middos Matter book!

Have a wonderful Shabbos!
