A Message from the Menahel

Our homes are powerful!

The values they inculcate are incredibly strong and long lasting!

אברהם אבינו was commanded to leave it all behind.

לך לך מארצך, ממולדתך, ומבית אביך...

His homeland and its culture, his birthplace and its lifestyle, his father's home and its values.

The passuk saves the most difficult for last... his father's home.

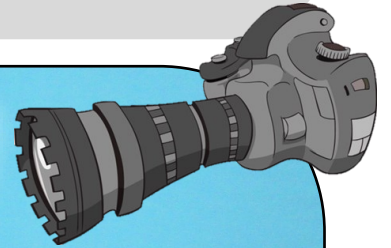

Just think, אברהם אבינו was 75 years old and blazed a path so different than תרח!

Why would it be a test to leave behind his father's home?!

The answer is, that the values absorbed at home are incredibly powerful!

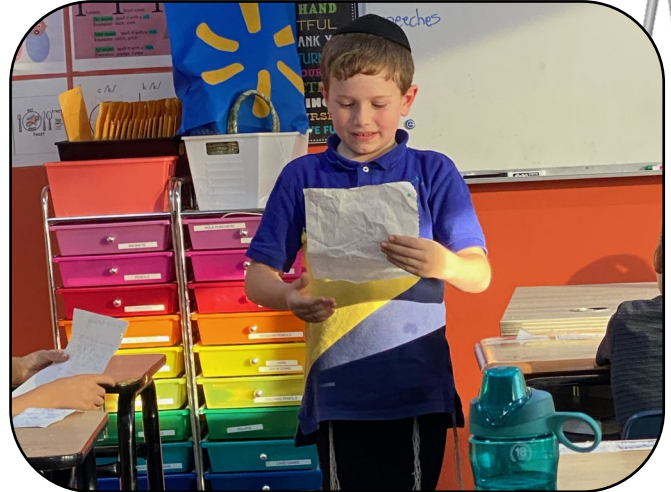

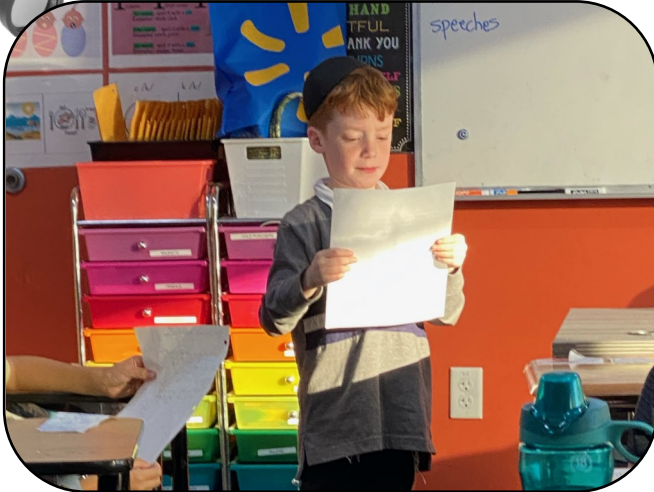

This obligates our homes to convey messages that should always be taken along!

Points from the Principal

What do Elections, Gym, Art, Math Lab, Library, Reading Rockets and Fluency Flyers have in common?

They are all run by teachers who love their students!

This week we had an election, baked 120 cake pops, implemented a new Gym program (it includes warm-ups, cool downs and even physical fitness testing!), played new math games and collaged picturesque fall trees. Two new reading programs have begun, and the copies to take home have been printed. Our rolling cart Library made its rounds.

All these extras were facilitated, prepared, organized and managed by our core teachers, because our teachers wanted the boys to have these experiences so badly.

This week we started Specials - it's our Special teachers who make it happen. Thank you!
