

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

פרשת החדש is a time for us to focus on the refreshing value of התחדשות - starting anew.

Regularly “starting anew” is a refreshing way of life and is highly encouraged by the great masters of עבודת ה'.

A genuine new start is always accepted by Hashem and also provides confidence that we are not falling into unwanted patterns - patterns we may have unwittingly fallen into. Starting anew also adds vitality and energy to what we are doing and can be done at any time!

Our inspiring Pre1A Rebbe, Rabbi Wiederman שליט"א, shared that his Rebbe, Hakadosh Rav Moshe Twersky זצ"ל והי"ד would always coach them to start anew. Any time the shiur would complete a sugya a few minutes early, he would tell his talmidim to restart and begin the next sugya.

This week with our “One More Word” program, we ended each lesson by starting our enthusiasm anew.

May we all have a refreshing new חודש full of energy, enthusiasm and loads of new starts!

Points from the Principal

Our long Fridays have begun! Those extra Fridays are going to be busy as we get ready for our end of the year fair! Who is going to help me think of a name for our upcoming fabulous fair? The theme is Being Helpful, and at this week's Friday assembly we learned what it means to be helpful. We practiced noticing what a friend needs, and then stepping up to let that friend reach his goal in the best way possible. There were blindfolds, obstacles and prizes involved, and everyone was so Helpful!

Get ready to explore the middah of being helpful as we learn about ourselves, our community, states, and gedolim!

Save the Date: May 22 we will celebrate it all at our FAIR!

Have a wonderful Shabbos!
