

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

There is so much to a Yiddeshe name.

A name represents who we are and the specific עבודה we have in this world.

Often a name links us to the past, forging a connection to the previous generation.

לחז"ל tell us that one reason בני ישראל were זוכה to leave מצרים is that they did not change their names.

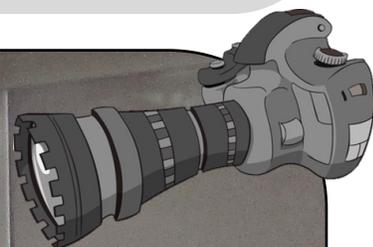

By keeping their names, בני ישראל retained their identity even through the difficulties of שעבוד מצרים.

By not changing their names, בני ישראל displayed pride in who they were and from where they came from.

Maybe for this reason, the פרשיות describing יציאת מצרים begin with the parsha of שמות - names.

Knowing who we are and being proud of where we come from is the secret to survival and success during any galus. What a שמחה it is to see this formula still going strong in our children and their friends!

מוצש"ק פרשת וארא
January 21

We are excitedly preparing for our annual Melava Malka! Pictured here is Rabbi Erlanger and the 2nd-3rd grades preparing the "hartzige" zemer of אל תירא עבדי יעקב.

Happenings Around the Cheder

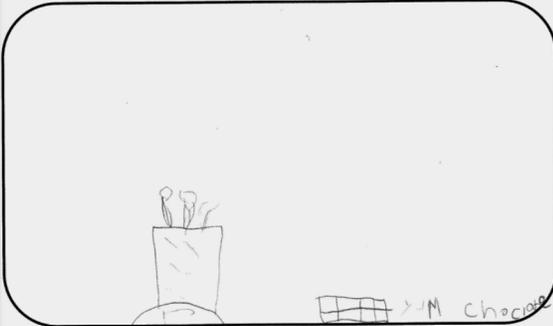

'סד' celebrated their very successful chavrusa program with a trip to Seasons and the railroad tracks!

Great Work!

COPS

Nosson Koval wrote a fabulous complete sentence!

Hi. My name is Mr. Pencil. I am very annoyed at the person who owns me. He is always squeezing me and taking off my head to put in weird gray sticks that apparently lets me write. I live in the same pencil case as my wife Mrs. pencil. The pencils inside call it pencilville. Then one day my owners teacher said he would be making a middos matter writing. I felt very happy that I would be used for something like this. But what if my owner used a different pencil? Then I would not be used to make a middos matter writing. I know I'll write an auto biography. That is what you have just read.

Eliyahu Eisenbach wrote from the perspective of a pencil!

Points from the Principal

We are B"H over half-way there! The boys have been talking and writing up a storm - with super solid sentences! We are finding that the words because, and, but, and so are very helpful to us; they help get our thoughts across clearly. Thank you for all taking part in Tuesday's Talking Challenges... keep up the great work!

Have a wonderful Shabbos,

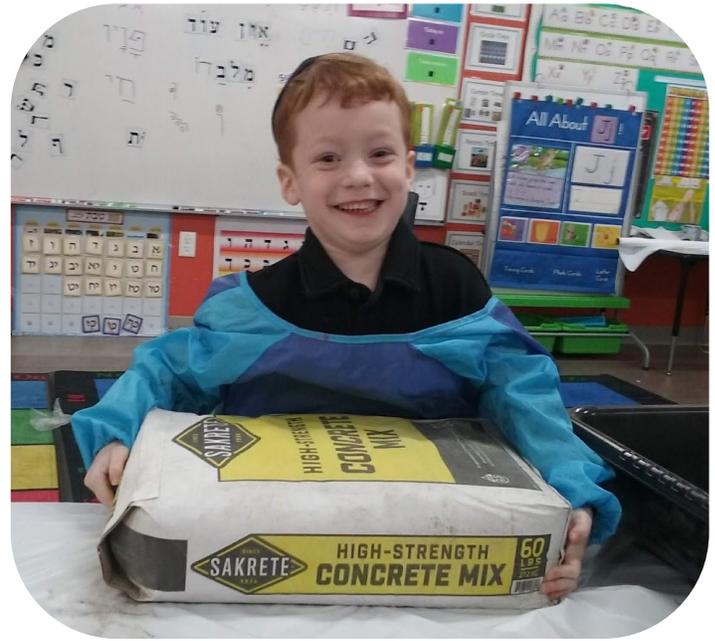

- Mrs. Gilden
