CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

We cannot hide who we really are.

Yitzchok recognized Yaakov from his manner of expression.

Yaakov Avinu disguised himself with the hairy goat skins.

His voice may have been similar to Eisav's.

But his manner of expression gave him away.

A refined essence cannot be hidden or mimicked.

Who we really are ultimately shines through.

Baruch Hashem, this is recognized at the Cheder and significant effort is invested in refining ourselves daily.

With this understanding and focus in place when we are young, we will בע"ה remain refined all life long.

Names not Numbers!

ב"ה, we are once again זוכה to introduce the Names not Numbers program to our 8th grade. Names not Numbers trains and enables young men to produce a documentary film telling the stories of select Holocaust survivors. On Tuesday, the boys met Mr. & Mrs. Rosenberg, the founders of this special project and learned interviewing skills from Cheder parent Jeff Bloom.

Points from the Principal

This week everyone had Great Work, as we published our first Middos Matter book of the year. The boys put a lot of thought into their writing after being immersed in the middah for the past month. Thank you Teachers for the lessons, read-alouds, demonstrations and for modeling shalom with such shalom. :)
Great job everyone! Looking forward to next months compilation!
Have a wonderful Shabbos!
