Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

Some things last forever.

The מסירת נפש demonstrated at the עקידה serves as an everlasting זכות for כלל ישראל.

I recall a shmuez in Yeshiva by an אדם חשוב who was raised as a שומר תורה ומצות in Communist Russia and then later in life was involved in the spectacular Teshuva movement by Russian Jewry. He compared his father sending him daily to an underground Cheder, to Avraham and Yitzchok going to the עקידה. He then continued and compared the incredible numbers of Yidden returning to תורה and מצות as the everlasting impact & זכות earned by the מסירת נפש of earlier years.

Today, our Gedolim have stated that disengaging from harmful interaction with technology is the מסירת נפש needed so that our children remain a part of the everlasting מסורה of כלל ישראל.

This מסירת נפש is significant..

The impact will last forever.

Great Work!

Fall
 Right now it is Fall. Fall is beautiful. I love how the leaves turn different colors. They could turn red/orange, or brown. All the leaves fall off the tree. You could rake up the leaves into a big pile and jump in it. woo hoo!

Points from the Principal

It's music to my ears when a student says 'it's so easy'- especially after preparing! Easiness is a feeling, and it only means that whatever the person is doing doesn't feel scary and new. It's something that has been conquered before, and can be done again. Nothing we learn should feel new - unless we build it and hype it to make it exciting. Skills build upon themselves and we should always feel prepared for the skills we learn in school. May this year be an easy breeze for everyone!

Have a great Shabbos,
- Mrs. Gilden
