

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

With positivity and simcha, life is always a celebration.

With two Adars this year, the question arises.

“משנכנס אדר מרבין בשמחה” - But which Adar does this refer to?

We know Purim is celebrated in the 2nd Adar. Maybe we should hold off another month?

On the other hand the first Adar has Purim Katan. A day we somewhat celebrate.

Maybe we should already start the simcha now?

The Rem”a in Shulchan Aruch guides us on the correct approach.

True, Purim Katan is a smaller simcha then the Purim in the 2nd Adar, but there is a simcha nonetheless.

טוב לב משתה תמיד - With a positive perspective, life is always a celebration.

If we can focus on any simcha, we should! Life is so full of goodness. The least we can do is celebrate it!
