

CHEDER CHESHEK

Your peek at how Chinuch and Cheshek go hand in hand

A Message from the Menahel

Interestingly, both קבלת התורה as well as the שכונה dwelling in our midst through the 'משכן ה', did not happen in ארץ ישראל.

In conversation with Rabbi Ament שליט"א, he proposed a valuable lesson to be learned from the phenomena. Spiritual heights can be reached, independent of one's physical place.

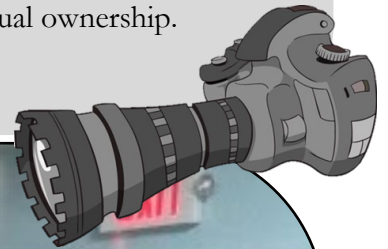

Even in a desert, away from the ארץ ישראל, קדושת, one can create their own island of השכונה. This is a mission statement for all of, especially during גלות.

Another lesson that can be learned is not to rely on one's place to provide spiritual growth.

Our growth as 'עובדי ה' must be owned and not dependent on our environment.

Though we must choose our environment carefully, true greatness comes from individual ownership.

May we all be successful in actualizing these lessons within ourselves and our children!

Points from the Principal

Top 3 reasons why handwriting is important:

- 3- When work looks nice you can feel good about it. It's important to set yourself up for feeling good!
- 2- The act of handwriting has neurological effects, and helps retain learning.
- 1- The written word is meant to be read.... the more legible the more possible (and motivating!) to read!
